

This plan should not be adopted. I am opposed to any technician licensee phone priveleges below 30 MHz in the U.S. amateur radio service. I am not opposed to the elimination of Element 1, but feel that this simplistic proposal would not serve the interests of amateur radio as a whole. The tests are easy enough, already.